Overview. In the 2001-02 school year, over 2 million students attended publicly funded elementary and secondary schools in Ontario. Publicly funded elementary and secondary schools are governed by the Education Act (the "Act") and its accompanying regulations. These schools are administered by local school boards throughout the province.

For 14 long years, students and educators have lived under the deeply flawed No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act. The Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) returns decision making for our nation's education back where it belongs - in the hands of local educators, parents and communities - while keeping the focus on students most in need.
