A good pigeon: the importance of the eye and wing theory One of our regular visitors, a great champion himself, sent us a letter and asked us to publish it on our website. The writer of this letter is surprised to see that so many fanciers hold to theories that should help them to recognise the best pigeons in their loft, especially in winter.

A good pigeon: the importance of the eye and wing theory

Nick Brent of St Clair International Stud Lofts Over the past 45 years, I have probably looked at as many pigeons eyes as anyone on the planet. In my travels as a pigeon fancier and pigeon photographer, I have looked at birds on most continents and listened to 10,000 and more experts telling us what the physical
