The Brass Check. It requires a bold courage to dare, when one is alone, to attack the monster, the new Minotaur, to which the entire world renders tribute: the Press. I return to Paris in a few weeks. Reaction there holds the center of the walk. It speaks already as master, and perhaps it will be master before the end of the winter.

The Brass Check: A Study of American Journalism. Well, on one hand, the problem with today's mainstream media are nothing new...on the other hand, the problem hasn't been solved since this book was originally published. But it's my favorite Upton Sinclair book so far. Somewhat shocking that things were already that bad 100 years ago.
