The liability to the curse which is incurred by all who look to the Law for justification is removed from those who are united by faith to Christ. For Christ took on himself the curse which the Law pronounces on the law-breaker: he "has redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse on our behalf" (Gal. 3.13).

The fact of the matter is, the curse comes upon men, not because they keep the Law, but because they failed to do so. Closer observation reveals that the curse is actually the curse which comes because of disobedience. Disobedience to God's Law is itself the curse, and the curse it brings is death. Sin has death wrapped up in it, for
