Using human urine can help us work toward a closed-loop fertility system. While not a plant-based technique per se, using their own urine is a way that veganic gardeners can cycle back the nutrients from the foods they consume, while also diverting their urine from the water system where it acts as a pollutant.

My Mom (who's Thai) taught me about growing lemongrass. You can use the green leaves for cooking as well. Cut it like chives and chop thinly, add it to any foods you'd normally add lemongrass to, you won't need to take it out, also freezes well this way too so you have fresh lemongrass through the winter (we live in Canada) the green stalks just grow back like grass and you basically ...
